

Lee, Bell and Dyson sail to Frostbite wins

Essex — Three classes of sailors took to the waters at the Frostbite Yacht Club in the club's second week of competition.

Tom Lee finished first among Lasers with Dave Frazier second and Mark Nowakowski third.

Bill Bell sailed to a first in Blue Jays, beating out runner-up Amy Dickerson and third-place Bill Grover, and Dave Dyson won in the Interclubs division. Paul Foley was second and Carter Gowrie third.

Monday? The system works, call in. That's what the FBYC did. By the way, I heard that Sharon Bell-Sullivan beat the reigning Blue Jay national champion two Sundays ago.

Frostbite races

Essex — Jennifer Adam took advantage of the extra racing class Sunday at the Frostbite Yacht Club in Essex, sailing her JY-15 to a win over second-place Bruce Avery and Buster Kingsbury.

In the other three classes, Dave Frazier took first in Lasers, Carter Gowrie sailed to a win in the In-

Frostbite racing

Essex — Chris Zann, Dave Nickerson and Tad Moriarity were all winners Sunday in winter racing at the Frostbite Yacht Club.

In the laser division, Zann was followed by Tom Lee in second place and Dave Frazier in third place.

Nickerson's win in the interclub division was followed by a tie for second between Carter Gowrie and Dave Dyson.

Moriarity took first place among Blue Jay sailors, while Chip Rutan was second
